CLAT 2025 PG Exam Faces Legal Challenge Over Fees and Transparency

Sheikh Rayees • December 24, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Madhya Pradesh High Court has sought a response from the Consortium of National Law Universities (NLU) following a petition contesting several aspects of the Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) PG 2025. The petition challenges the accuracy of the final answer key, the imposition of hefty objection fees, and the limited window for raising concerns. A judicial bench emphasized that while the petitioner, a test taker from the December 1...
