COURT OF RECORD

High Court Slams 'Let the Court Decide' Attitude, Declares Constitution Supreme Above All State Organs

Sheikh Rayees • May 2, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a striking rebuke of administrative apathy, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has declared that the Indian Constitution reigns supreme over all three branches of the State—Judiciary, Legislature, and Executive—reminding them that none enjoys superiority over the others. The observation came as the Court ruled on a batch of petitions involving disciplinary actions against employees of Haryana's power utilities. Justice Jasgurpreet Singh Puri, who authored the judgment...
