COURT OF RECORD

High Court Slams Police for Unlawful Detention of Anti-Corruption Whistleblower

Sheikh Rayees • July 4, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Calcutta High Court emphasized that the police cannot infringe upon a citizen's freedom simply because they exposed corruption by a ruling party member. The court directed the immediate release of the detained individual and demanded CCTV footage from the police station on the arrest date. Justice Amrita Sinha expressed that the police's actions in detaining the individual were a blatant abuse of power. The court...
