High Court Steps In Authorities to Oversee Anantnag Temples Amid Dispute

Sheikh Rayees • July 12, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move, the Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court has mandated the local authorities in South Kashmir to assume control over the management of two temples in Anantnag. This directive comes in light of an ongoing legal battle involving conflicting claims over the temples' stewardship. The division bench, comprising Justice Sanjeev Kumar and Justice MA Chowdhary, has instructed the District Magistrate of Anantnag to take immediate control...
