COURT OF RECORD

High Court Upholds Dismissal of Guard Caught Sleeping at Judge's Residence After Drinking

Sheikh Rayees • April 24, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Madhya Pradesh High Court upheld the decision to compulsorily retire a security guard who was found asleep while on duty at the official residence of a High Court judge in Gwalior, back in 2007. The court found the guard's actions to be a serious misconduct, particularly given his responsibility to maintain vigilance. During the investigation, it was noted that the guard's breath had the distinct...
