High Court Upholds Father's Duty to Support Children Despite Working Mother

Sheikh Rayees • August 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh emphasized that a father's duty to support his minor children remains, irrespective of the mother's employment status. The case revolved around a man who contested his obligation to provide maintenance for his children, arguing that his estranged wife, a government teacher with a substantial income, should bear the financial responsibility. Justice Sanjay Dhar, presiding over the case,...
