Himachal Pradesh High Court Clarifies Eligibility for District Judge Role

Continuous Practice Not Required

Sheikh Rayees • July 13, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Himachal Pradesh High Court has declared that advocates do not need continuous seven years of practice to qualify for the position of Additional District and Sessions Judge. The court's decision diverges from a previous Delhi High Court ruling which mandated continuous experience. The Division Bench, comprising Chief Justice MS Ramachandra Rao and Justice Satyen Vaidya, examined Rule 5(c) of the Himachal Pradesh Judicial Service Rules,...
