Hospitals Have Turned Patients Into Walking Wallets”

Allahabad High Court Slams Greedy Medical Practices

Sheikh Rayees • July 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a blistering rebuke of exploitative healthcare practices, the Allahabad High Court likened private hospitals to human ATMs—accusing them of using patients as cash cows while lacking the basic facilities to provide timely medical care. The critique came during the Court’s refusal to quash criminal proceedings against a doctor accused of negligence in a tragic case involving the death of an unborn child. Justice Prashant Kumar, presiding over the matter,...
