ICPS Conducts Landmark Training on New Criminal Laws for Government Officials

Sheikh Rayees • June 24, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies (ICPS) successfully wrapped up its second training programme on newly enacted criminal laws on June 20th and 21st, 2024. Following the resounding success of the initial session in May, which attracted over 100 participants and received glowing feedback, this second programme saw more than 80 government officers and officials in attendance. Designed for officials from various government ministries...
