Delhi HC's Stark Reminder on Online Radicalism

Sheikh Rayees • July 17, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has sounded the alarm on digital provocations, ruling that any effort to radicalize youth via social media platforms squarely falls within the ambit of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act. In a pointed observation, the bench held that deliberately sharing incendiary content with the intention of steering impressionable minds toward extremist causes cannot evade scrutiny under anti-terror legislation. Dispelling any notion of a “virtual free-for-all,” the...
