Supreme Court Denies Relief to Sri Lankan National Facing Deportation

Sheikh Rayees • May 19, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

India, the Supreme Court made clear on Monday, is not a “dharamshala” — not a revolving door for displaced persons from around the globe seeking indefinite refuge under its roof. The comment came as a two-judge bench, comprising Justices Dipankar Datta and K Vinod Chandran, dismissed a plea filed by Subaskaran, a Sri Lankan Tamil national convicted under multiple Indian laws, including the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA). Subaskaran had...
