India's Courts Go Digital at Scale, With 637 Crore Pages Now Online

Sheikh Rayees • February 6, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

India's judicial system has quietly crossed a staggering digital milestone. More than 637 crore pages of court records—spanning High Courts and district courts—have now been scanned and preserved under the Centre's e-Courts Mission Mode Project, according to information placed before the Rajya Sabha.
