

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

India's Forgotten Prisoners

Supreme Court Moved to Free the Ailing and Aged Behind Bars

Sheikh Rayees • April 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a quiet but resolute move that cuts to the heart of justice and compassion, the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) has stepped into the Supreme Court spotlight with a public interest litigation (PIL) that seeks to breathe dignity back into the lives of elderly and terminally ill convicts languishing in prisons across India. The petition—filed under the title NALSA v Union of India & Ors—doesn't ask for mercy. It...

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN