COURT OF RECORD

Inspector Accused in Army Officer Assault Agrees to Truth Tests

Sheikh Rayees • September 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a startling turn of events, Dinakrushna Mishra, the suspended Inspector-in-Charge of Bharatpur police station, has consented to undergo a Narco Analysis test, along with Polygraph and Brain Fingerprinting tests, to affirm his innocence against serious allegations of assaulting an Army officer and his fiancé, a lawyer. During a recent hearing, Mishra asserted his non-involvement in the alleged crimes, stating, "I am innocent. I am not involved in the commission..."
