J&K High Court Quashes Forgery Proceedings Against Two Doctors in Age Certificate Case

Editorial Team • November 16, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The High Court of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh on Monday quashed forgery proceedings against two doctors in a case involving an allegedly false age certificate. Justice Sanjay Parihar allowed proceedings for cheating, criminal conspiracy and corruption to continue, subject to statutory requirements for investigation and prosecution. The Crime Branch alleged that a Srinagar medical board issued a certificate in 1999 assessing a Public Health Engineering Department worker's...
