JNU Suspended Students Granted Relief

Court Finds Suspension Order Lacked Fair Hearing

Sheikh Rayees • October 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

Nine students from Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), suspended following accusations tied to an October 22 clash during a freshers' event, were granted temporary relief by the Delhi High Court after raising concerns about procedural fairness. The students, who claimed they had been unfairly barred from campus for two semesters without a hearing, approached the Court for justice. The suspension orders, issued on October 25 by JNU's Chief Proctor, came as...
