Judge Puts Brakes on Trump's Crackdown Against Susman Godfrey

Sheikh Rayees • April 20, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp judicial rebuke to Donald Trump's latest executive push, a federal court has temporarily halted the enforcement of key parts of an executive order targeting powerhouse law firm Susman Godfrey LLP. The order, issued just six days prior, accused the firm of acting "against critical American interests" and threatened to strip it of federal access, contracts, and security clearances. But on April 15, Judge Loren L. AliKhan of...
