Judges Overwhelmed by Case Load, Errors Not Always Malicious

Allahabad High Court

Sheikh Rayees • June 8, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent hearing, the Allahabad High Court highlighted the immense pressure trial judges face with hundreds of cases daily, asserting that not every mistake indicates malicious intent. During a property dispute case in Lucknow, it was alleged that the Chief Judicial Magistrate's order had been tampered with. Justice Mohd. Faiz Alam Khan addressed these concerns, stating that mistakes in judicial proceedings are not always due to ulterior motives but...
