Bombay High Court Sides with PVR, BookMyShow on Online Convenience Fees

Sheikh Rayees • July 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decision that could reshape your next movie night, the Bombay High Court has ruled that multiplexes can legally charge convenience fees on online bookings, handing a significant win to cinema giants PVR and BookMyShow. The Court struck down Maharashtra government orders that had banned these charges, calling them unconstitutional and beyond the scope of the State's powers. A division bench of Justices MS Sonak and Jitendra Jain delivered...
