Juvenile Rights Prevail Over Alleged Offence Severity

Sheikh Rayees • June 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent judicial pronouncement, the Allahabad High Court underscored the primacy of juvenile rights over the gravity of alleged crimes, reiterating the provisions of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015. Delving into the case of a teenager embroiled in a series of accusations, including involvement in a heinous crime, the Court, led by Justice Manish Kumar Nigam, elucidated that the severity of the offence does not constitute a justifiable ground...
