SUPREME COURT

Judicial Lapses in Dowry Death Cases Undermine Public Trust, Says Supreme Court

Sheikh Rayees • March 4, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has overturned the bail granted to a couple accused in the alleged dowry-related death of their daughter-in-law, emphasizing that courts must exercise extreme caution in such cases to maintain public confidence in the justice system. In a scathing rebuke of the High Court's decision, the bench highlighted the alarming circumstances surrounding the death of Shahida Bano, who was found hanging in her matrimonial home just two years...
