Court Declares Suicide Case 'Too Far Fetched'

Sheikh Rayees • December 5, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Bombay High Court has put an end to a contentious case involving allegations of abetment of suicide against a judicial officer, citing a lack of substantial evidence to support the charges. The case centered on the tragic death of Bhupal Ramu Mali, a resident of Miraj, Maharashtra, in June 2016. Mali's suicide, linked to a longstanding property dispute, resulted in accusations against judicial officer Nasirhusen Mohiddin Jamadar and his...
