SUPREME COURT

Judicial Warning

Impact of Arbitrary Tender Cancellations on Public-Private Partnerships

Sheikh Rayees • July 11, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pivotal ruling, the Supreme Court has issued a stern caution to public authorities against whimsical cancellation of public tenders, emphasizing the critical role of contract sanctity in fostering stable public-private partnerships. Highlighting the Doctrine of Public Trust underlying tender processes, the Court underscored that arbitrary cancellations undermine trust and deter private sector participation. Such actions, it warned, jeopardize the integrity of procurement...
