Court Orders Compensation for Injured Cadet

Sheikh Rayees • February 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A military cadet who suffered a debilitating injury during training at the Officer Training Academy (OTA) in 1999 has finally been granted relief by the Punjab and Haryana High Court. The Court has directed the Union government to release ex-gratia compensation, rejecting claims that his injuries were unrelated to military service. Parveen Salaria, who was set to become a Commissioned Officer, developed severe pain in his right thigh during an...
