Court Mandates Service for Accused Students in Unique Bail Order

Sheikh Rayees • December 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a groundbreaking decision, the Madras High Court has ordered four college students accused of murder to serve daily shifts in the trauma wards of government hospitals as a condition for their bail. This unconventional ruling is aimed at fostering reflection and accountability among the accused while addressing the broader issue of rising violence in student communities. The students, undergraduates from Pachaiyappa's College in Chennai, were arrested following a...
