Karnataka High Court Nixes ED's Case Against Greenpeace, Calls It a Relic of a Repealed Law

Sheikh Rayees • June 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that slices through years of legal fog, the Karnataka High Court has thrown out the Enforcement Directorate's 2019 complaint against Greenpeace Environment Trust and Greenpeace India Society, declaring the case legally lifeless from the start. At the heart of the matter was the ED's claim that Greenpeace had violated provisions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) by allegedly routing foreign funds through a partnership with Direct...
