Karnataka High Court Rebukes State for Slashing Aid to Construction Workers' Children

Sheikh Rayees • January 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Karnataka High Court has annulled a controversial notification by the state government that drastically cut educational assistance for children of construction workers. The Court underscored that constitutional rights extend to all citizens, not just the privileged, and denounced the reduction as unjustifiable and regressive. The notification, issued by the Karnataka Building and Other Construction Welfare Board (KBCWB) in October...
