Karnataka High Court Refuses to Quash POCSO Case Against Yediyurappa, But Questions Trial Court's Ruling

Sheikh Rayees • February 7, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Karnataka High Court has upheld the case against former Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO) while striking down the trial court's order that took judicial notice of the case, calling it vague and lacking proper reasoning. The court found sufficient material, including a forensic-confirmed audio recording linking Yediyurappa to the allegations. However, it emphasized that this evidence must be tested during...
