Kejriwal in Legal Crosshairs Over 'Poisoned Yamuna' Claim

Sheikh Rayees • January 30, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A Haryana court has summoned Arvind Kejriwal following allegations that his remarks about the Yamuna River being "poisoned" incited public panic. The Chief Judicial Magistrate in Sonapat issued a notice requiring Kejriwal to appear in person on February 17. The case stems from a complaint filed by the State Disaster Management Authority under Section 54 of the Disaster Management Act, which deals with spreading misinformation during emergencies. The...
