Kerala Court Blocks Termination Over Flawed Notice, Orders Full Benefits

Sheikh Rayees • October 23, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant decision, the Kerala High Court has ruled that termination orders must be delivered via registered post to be legally valid, emphasizing that delivery through ordinary post is insufficient. This ruling came during a case involving a former high school teacher, Jiji John Cherian, who contested his termination from an aided school. Justice Harisankar V Menon, referencing Section 27 of the General Clauses Act, underscored that only registered...
