Kerala HC Flags 'Copy-Paste' Appeals, Quashes Acquittal Won Through Legal Loophole

Sheikh Rayees • August 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has issued a stern wake-up call to the State's district judiciary after uncovering an unusual legal sleight of hand—an accused in a 2009 robbery case, already defeated in one appeal, managed to secure an acquittal years later by slipping a second appeal into the very same sessions court through a different lawyer. Justice PV Kunhikrishnan, appalled at the procedural blind spot, set aside the acquittal and...
