Kerala High Court Defends Religious Freedom, Sets Aside Ban on Muslim Prayer Hall

Sheikh Rayees • November 18, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has emphasized that religious establishments cannot be obstructed solely due to opposition from another community, reaffirming the secular and democratic principles enshrined in India's Constitution. This ruling came as the Court quashed a series of orders denying permission for the operation of a Muslim prayer hall owned by KT Mubeen. Justice Mohammed Niaz CJ, delivering the judgment, underlined the constitutional guarantees of religious...
