Married Women Can Undergo IVF Regardless of Husband's Age

Sheikh Rayees • February 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A recent ruling by the Kerala High Court has reaffirmed that a married woman is eligible to undergo in-vitro fertilization (IVF) using a donor gamete, even if her husband surpasses the age limit set by the Assisted Reproductive Technology (Regulation) Act, 2021 (ART Act), as long as he provides consent. The court examined the provisions of the ART Act and clarified that the law sets distinct upper age limits—50 years...
