Kerala High Court Ponders Can Any Advocate Plead Without a Vakalat?

Sheikh Rayees • July 9, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In an intriguing legal examination, the Kerala High Court is set to determine whether only Senior Advocates can appear without a vakalat or if any advocate can do so after filing a memo of appearance or making a declaration. Traditionally, litigants appoint lawyers through a vakalat, authorizing them to appear in court. Typically, only lawyers holding the vakalat or Senior Advocates instructed by them can argue cases. However, the court...
