Kerala High Court

Prioritize the Needy, Not Illegal Religious Structures

Sheikh Rayees • May 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Kerala High Court has mandated the removal of unauthorized religious structures from government land, emphasizing that true devotion does not require encroachment. "God is everywhere. Believers need not encroach government land to construct religious structures. Let it be distributed to landless people and used for mankind. God will be more happy," the court remarked. Justice PV Kunhikrishnan instructed the State Chief Secretary to have...
