Kerala High Court Reopens Wayanad Landslide Tragedy Case, Pushes for Stricter Development Policies

Sheikh Rayees • August 9, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has taken a proactive stance in response to the recent Wayanad landslides, launching suo motu proceedings to address the factors contributing to the disaster. In a significant move, the Division Bench, led by Justices AK Jayasankaran Nambiar and Syam Kumar VM, initiated a writ petition to explore preventive measures for future natural calamities. The Bench underscored the urgent need for the State government to establish a...
