Kerala High Court Slams Attempts to Backtrack on Mediation Deals

“Not a Playground for Regret”

Sheikh Rayees • July 26, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm message to litigants attempting post-facto U-turns, the Kerala High Court made it crystal clear: mediation agreements are not scribbles on a napkin — they carry the weight of the judiciary, and courts will not entertain attempts to casually wriggle out of them. A Division Bench comprising Justices Devan Ramachandran and MB Snehalatha, while deciding a matrimonial dispute, emphasized that settlements reached through mediation — once recorded and...
