Kerala High Court Slams Sessions Court for 'Absurd' Comparison in Travel Ban Case

Sheikh Rayees • February 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has overturned a sessions court order that denied a man accused in a narcotics case permission to work abroad, condemning the judge's reasoning as flawed and unfair. At the heart of the controversy was the sessions judge's decision to equate the accused, Sooryanarayanan, with financial fugitives Vijay Mallya and Nirav Modi, both of whom remain overseas despite efforts to bring them back. The High Court deemed...
