COURT OF RECORD

Kerala High Court Strikes Down Governor's Selections for Kerala University Senate

Sheikh Rayees • May 25, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent judicial decision that reverberated through the corridors of academic power, the Kerala High Court wielded its authority, nullifying the student nominations tendered by Kerala's Governor, Arif Mohammed Khan, to the esteemed Senate of Kerala University. The court's ruling, stemming from the case of Arunima Ashok and others versus The Chancellor, University of Kerala, delivered on May 21, not only annulled the nominations but also meticulously delineated the...
