Kerala High Court Warns Against Blind Trust in Sexual Assault Allegations

Sheikh Rayees • March 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has challenged the long-held belief that women in India would not make false sexual assault allegations due to societal repercussions. Justice A Badharudeen observed that, in recent years, there has been a rise in cases where false complaints were used as a means to settle personal scores. The court emphasized that each allegation must be scrutinized independently, rather than assuming its validity based on outdated notions....
