Kerala High Court Warns Against Political Violence, Grants Bail in Councillor Assault Case

Sheikh Rayees • January 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm stand against political violence, the Kerala High Court has granted anticipatory bail to five Congress workers accused in the assault and abduction of Koothattukulam municipal councillor Kala Raju. The court underscored that electoral disputes must be resolved through the ballot, not intimidation or street brawls. Justice PV Kunhikrishnan, delivering the order, reminded all political factions that democracy thrives on trust and the will of the people, not...
