Kerala High Court Warns Stop Using Kids as Protest Props, Parents Could Face Consequences

Sheikh Rayees • September 30, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a strong rebuke, the Kerala High Court has issued a stern warning to parents who involve their young children in protests, stating that strict action will be taken against such behavior. Justice PV Kunhikrishnan emphasized that exposing children to the emotional and physical stress of protests and agitations can cause lasting harm. The Court remarked that children under the age of 10, who are often unaware of the causes...
