Lawyer Steps In to Support Minor Rape Victim After State Declines Financial Aid

Sheikh Rayees • September 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent hearing at the Rajasthan High Court, Advocate Shreyansh Mardia made a compassionate gesture by volunteering to cover the child-delivery expenses of a pregnant minor rape victim, following the State's refusal to provide financial support. The case was presented before a Bench led by Justice Dinesh Mehta, where the court was informed that the State could not be compelled to bear the costs associated with the victim's delivery....
