Lawyers Challenge Non-Veg Menu Return in Court Canteen During Navratri

A Clash of Traditions

Sheikh Rayees • October 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A group of Supreme Court lawyers has formally protested the decision to resume serving non-vegetarian food in one of the court canteens during the Navratri festival. Their concerns, addressed in a letter to the Supreme Court Bar Association (SCBA) and the Supreme Court Advocates-on-Record Association (SCAORA), point to a perceived disregard for the religious sentiments of those observing the nine-day festival, which traditionally involves abstaining from certain foods. Led...
