Bombay High Court Declares Fate of Ratan Tata's Undistributed Shares

Sheikh Rayees • June 24, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a courtroom steeped in legacy and precision, the Bombay High Court has settled a quiet but significant question: What becomes of the shares that India's iconic industrialist Ratan Tata didn't specifically assign in his will? Answer: They now flow equally into the hands of the causes he held dear. The ruling emerged from probate proceedings initiated to validate the will and its amendments, which include four codicils. At the...
