Delhi High Court Stands Guard Over Iconic Moti Mahal Trademark

Sheikh Rayees • November 13, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a dramatic legal defense of culinary heritage, the Delhi High Court has issued a temporary ban on any unauthorized use of the 'Moti Mahal' trademark, safeguarding the legacy tied to one of India's most renowned restaurant names. The ruling, a victory for Rupa Gujral—the daughter of a founder of the iconic Moti Mahal—prohibits the defendants from using the name in business operations until the suit's final resolution. Justice Mini...
