Delhi High Court Sides with Patients in Rare Disease Drug Battle

Sheikh Rayees • March 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decision that strikes at the heart of pharma profits versus patient needs, the Delhi High Court has refused to block Indian drugmaker Natco Pharma from producing a life-saving treatment for Spinal Muscular Atrophy (SMA), despite fierce resistance from global pharma heavyweight Roche. Roche had sought an interim injunction to stop Natco from making Risdiplam — the first oral therapy for SMA, marketed by Roche under the name Evrysdi...
