Madhya Pradesh High Court Champions Uniform Civil Code to Curb Harmful Practices

Sheikh Rayees • July 22, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A meticulously drafted Uniform Civil Code (UCC) could curtail superstitions and malevolent customs, fortifying the nation's integrity, declared the Madhya Pradesh High Court. Justice Anil Verma asserted that various degrading, fundamentalist, and ultra-conservative practices in society are often masked as faith and belief. He emphasized that while the Indian Constitution's Article 44 advocates for a UCC, it remains largely theoretical. A robust UCC could counter these harmful...
