Man Fined INR2,000 for Tossing Corruption Allegations at Judges Like Dice at a Fair

Sheikh Rayees • March 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a curious case that unfolded at the Allahabad High Court's Lucknow bench, a man who hurled corruption allegations at High Court judges found himself fined INR2,000—not for the audacity, but for criminal contempt. The story began nearly a decade ago in 2016, when one Devendra Kumar Dixit fired off a complaint, alleging that judges of the High Court had accepted bribes to toss out his writ petition. His chosen...
