Karnataka High Court Upholds Woman's Freedom to Choose

Sheikh Rayees • May 25, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling that echoes the changing tides of modern relationships, the Karnataka High Court has granted a Hindu woman the liberty to reside with her Muslim spouse, whom she encountered through the realms of social media. Amidst the legal deliberation presided over by Justices S Sunil Dutt Yadav and Venkatesh Naik T, it became evident that the woman, a major in her own right, had made a conscious...
